

Mr. Bulmaro Vences currently serves as a Management Analyst at the Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) while assigned to the Veteran and Military Spouse Talent Engagement Program (VMSTEP). His duties are to provide operational support to the Director of Operations and Program Managers.

Prior to this current role, he served as a Tax Specialist at PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) in the Specialized Tax Services, Credits and Studies unit, specifically in Research and Development (R&D) tax credit studies. In addition, he also provided support services to Washington National Tax Services handling tax controversy and regulatory services.

Mr. Vences was born in Tampa, FL, and is a United States Marine Corps Veteran who served with the 26th Marine Expeditionary Unit as a Field Radio Operator. Post deployment, he earned a Certificate of Commendation for Superior Performance of Duty and Global war on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal for his efforts.

Mr. Vences holds a Bachelor of Arts in History, a Bachelor of Science in Criminology, and a Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Information Systems Management all from The University of Tampa. Furthermore, Mr. Vences was selected as a Finalist for the Presidential Management Fellowship (PMF) program, Class of 2022, and was appointed as a Presidential Management Fellow near the end of 2022. The PMF program is a highly selective, two-year training and leadership development program at a United States government agency that is administered by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM).