Job Title: Superintendent, Maintenance

Agency: New York City Transit

Job ID: 97828

First Date of Posting: 9/22/2020

Last Date of Filing: 10/6/2020

Compensation

Salary: $78,533 (Min); $101,333 (Mid) Grade E/

Compression Minimum: $99,000

Responsibilities

The selected Incumbent will plan, direct and coordinate a maintenance section in the inspection, testing, repair and maintenance of the NYCT Power SCADA system. These functions include control and battery transmission lines, negative system integrity, battery backup systems and other associated Power electronic systems. Emergency responses to test, repair and a timely restoration of power communications between System Operations and power substations. Accountable for managing activities of hourly and supervisory employees engaged in various Power Electronic system maintenances, upgrades, and replacements.

Education and Experience

Six (6) years of full-time experience in power Cable Maintenance of a Rapid Transit System; of which three (3) years must have been in a managerial/supervisory capacity; Or a satisfactory combination of education and experience.

Desired Skills

- Knowledge of Rapid Transit Operations, electricity, cable removal and installation techniques, project management, ACM and Lead removal procedures and maintenance management techniques is desirable.
- Familiarity with NYCT budget practices, and material procurement procedures.
- Familiarity with Department of Subways divisions’, safety rules, labor contracts and engineering.
- Experience in an electrical construction contracting firm involved in major repair and renewal contracts.

To apply, please go to:  https://new.mta.info/careers and click on “See all open MTA positions” and search for: Job ID: 97828

MTA NYC Transit is an Equal Opportunity Employer